STYLING TIPS TO UNLEASH YOUR INNER GODDESS

NICOLE SALINGER

"I believe that every woman's wants, needs and dreams, lie in one universal factor. She simply wants to shine."

Over the years inspiring women in fashion, health & beauty, I've discovered a universal secret. All women want to sparkle. We all want to feel confident, and shine brightly in our own individual way.

And yet, in our lives, when we dress, whether its for smart everyday style, or an event or occasion, it feels like groundhog day. Why? We often miss the importance of the one single ingredient, the cherry on top. The Shiny Accessory. The adornments that defines us from someone else. The statement piece that makes us sparkle. We've forgotten how to shine!

This is why I created this fun Creative Goddess Guide to help you sparkle, brought to you by Boho & Co Designer Jewellery. In it, I have listed my favourite sparkly necklaces that I believe will brighten up your wardrobe, and make you look smart & stylish. In addition to this, I'll show you how to wear the pieces I describe, and inspire you to get out of your comfort zone and wear more colour. Along with sharing my inspiration behind each collection, I hope to motivate you to define your own sense of Goddess style!

Much Love,

THE COCKTAIL QUEEN

My Style Story:

If you're a busy mum like me, you probably love wearing black. Why? Because it gives us women a slim & sexy silhouette. We feel confident in black. It's effortless & chic. In fact, for this very reason, I wear black every single day. My daily uniform, especially in winter, is my black tights, black boots and black pencil skirt. Then I throw on my toppings, a cool coloured jacket and - my Cocktail Queen Necklace! In black, white & grey, this necklace reminds me of the style sensibility of Coco Chanel, of sophisticated cocktail parties, of the jazz clubs of the 40's, and the clean monochrome downtown edge of New York City and Melbourne. Perfect for day to night style!

THE ISLAND QUEEN

My Style Story:

Ever since I was a little girl, I've always had a soft spot for luxe island style. Perhaps it was because for the first 4 years of my life, I lived in San Juan, Puerto Rico. The joy of smelling the balmy sea air, the visionary pleasure of the beautiful palm trees, and the taste of delicious raw coconut all hold a special place in my heart. So I created this Island Queen necklace, infusing all the colours of my tropical childhood memory. In it you can see the turquoise waters of the sea, the greens of the palm trees, botanical olive green and the light gold and brown sandy beaches. This necklace is perfect to wear on holiday, over a kaftan, or with a smart dress out to dinner on a warm, blissful night. Let your imagination flow, and glow like an everyday Island Queen!

THE GOLD GODDESS

My Style Story:

I've always been fascinated by the James Bond films. Especially those Bond girls. Tall in stature, mysterious and beautiful, so Goddess-like, really. So I created these Gold Goddess Chandelier Earrings, based on the luxe couture elegance of the typical Bond Girl. Imagine yourself gliding across a crowded room, in a luxurious gold dress and shining from ear to ear. You sashay straight up to the bar, and James Bond suddenly appears, seductively charming you to order a cocktail. That is the way I want you to feel every single day by wearing these earrings. Empowered, mysterious, confident in stature. This is the magical charm of the Gold Goddess.

THE MODERN ROMANTIC

My Style Story:

I believe that every Modern girl believes in true love. That the perfect partner is out there, whom she is yet to meet. I define her as the Modern Romantic. Similar to Audrey Hepburn's charming & playful character, Holly Golightly in the movie Breakfast At Tiffanys. Holly led a fashionable yet unconventional life, but deep down, she still yearned for true love. So I created this Audrey Necklace, to celebrate the dreamers and hoppers of this world. To celebrate the colour of femininity, sophistication, love, joy, wisdom & serenity. Team it as Audrey did, in pure black. Wear it out on a date, to dinner or a show. Display it proudly on your neck, and dazzle everyone around you with the legacy of love.

WINTER WANDERLUST

My Style Story:

Growing up in Montreal, Canada, was nothing short of a Winter Wonderland. For 8 months of the year I would walk to school covered in snowflakes, and when waking up in the morning, find icicles hanging down my windowsill, blinging in the morning sun. They were visions of pure, transparent beauty, blending beautifully with the white surroundings of my home. So, it's no secret why many women wear white as a fashion staple. Whether dressed up or down, I think white speaks of pure elegance. So I created these Winter Wanderlust earrings, to complement the woman who loves wearing white, who loves to dress herself in a colour of purity and enchantment. As an ode to mother nature, who showed me that even in white, we all have the permission to shine.

THE POWER CHICK

My Style Story:

Let's set the scene - You are a power woman, working full time in a high powered job. Your weeks may consist of meetings, client lunches, after work drinks, cocktail functions, and - you are running out of style choices that can take you out of the office to then shine in a social setting. You need the very accessory to take you from "Pow to Wow!" in 30 seconds flat. My solution? It's my The Grey Goddess Necklace. It is sleek, and doesn't overpower your office look, but yet adds glamour for cocktails. It's neutral, which means that it sits in the middle of white & black, to blend seamlessly with many other colours, such as Pink, Purple and Navy. It adds great value to your wardrobe, giving you an instant edge for when the occasion calls.

My Style Story:

Do you ever dream of travelling to far off places, seeking wanderlust adventures? As a busy mum, I often daydream about going on a magic carpet ride, off to Morocco, where the cobbled streets of Bazaar style awaits me. There I would stay in an ornate palace, wearing a kaftan of rainbow-like radiance. There I am surrounded by lush velvet furniture, and beautiful mosaic- filled walls of Sapphire Blue, Amethyst and Rose. After I taste the most delicious spicy teas, I then dip in a serene spa filled with pools of warm Turquoise and Jade. Adorn yourself with my Boho Queen Necklace, that which represents the colourful spirit of my soul. May you too embrace your own Everyday Bohemian.

MAMMA FASHIONISTA

My Style Story:

My fashion go-to colour has always been Green. Green is quite fashionable at the moment, and is also a colour that goes well with dark tones, and gives you that pop of colour with a bit of mystery and a great deal of passion. Green is universally known as the colour of nature. But it also resonates with me on another, more spiritual level. It is the colour of harmonious energy and inner renewal, which are the essential ingredients to a woman's healthy mindset. So I created this necklace not only as a current fashion staple for your wardrobe, but as an adornment of armour, giving you an abundance of female power and positive energy to unleash your inner Goddess.
